

BEE'S WRAP®

SUSTAINABLE FOOD STORAGE

WHOLESALE
CATALOG

Bee’s Wrap® is the natural alternative to plastic wrap — because good food deserves good care.

PRACTICAL

Wrap up a hunk of cheese, half a lemon, a loaf of homemade bread. Use the warmth of your hands to form our wraps around a piece of food or over a bowl or casserole dish. As the wrap cools, the seal will hold its shape.

ECO-FRIENDLY INGREDIENTS

Bee’s Wrap is made with organic cotton, sustainably harvested beeswax, organic jojoba oil, and tree resin. Our wraps are fully biodegradable and compostable.

EASY TO USE

The natural antibacterial properties of beeswax and jojoba oil help keep food fresh, and allow Bee’s Wrap to be used again and again. Simply wash with cool water and soap, then hang to dry. Used several times each week, Bee’s Wrap will last for roughly one year.

Stemming the Plastic Tide

Inspired by our shores, seas, and waterways, our playful Oceans print celebrates these vast and important resources, and marks our commitment to preventing plastic pollution. We've partnered with 1% for the Planet to donate a percentage of sales from this print to organizations supporting ocean conservancy, beach cleanups, and water stewardship.

If we don't reverse course, our oceans could contain more plastic than fish by 2050. Already, plastic pollution litters our shores, clogs our waterways, and kills millions of marine animals each year. Single-use plastics are among the greatest culprits of this pollution. Join us as we stem the tide on plastic pollution, and learn more about our giving at beeswrap.com/pages/giving-back.

EXPLORER PACK

We are proud to partner with National Geographic as part of their “Planet or Plastic?” campaign. This multi-year, global initiative is designed to raise awareness of the global plastic pollution crisis. As we undertake the cultural challenge of ditching single-use plastics, we looked to Monarch butterflies for inspiration: Monarchs remind us that the world in which we live is an interconnected one, that change is not only possible but a condition of existence, and that to travel and to transform is a thing of beauty.

Includes: 1 sandwich wrap with wooden bee button and hemp twine and 2 medium wraps
