> " We can all be forgiven for occasionally serving Chardonnay in plastic tumblers. But the wine will suffer for it. It will have barely any taste, no discernible aromas, and seem tart and slightly vinegary.

Two friends, Shannon Zappala and Regan Kelaher, began collaborating on all things 'wine' in 2015. Their passion for great wine, dislike of plastic glasses and a love for Southern California's outdoor lifestyle led to the birth of GOVERRE.

Shannon and Regan both worked stable jobs in corporate America. After years of experience (in healthcare and marketing) and many nights debating the "what ifs" over their favorite beverage, inspiration struck and both knew it was time to pursue their passion – to build a brand.

In January 2017, the duo turned GOVERRE into their full-time jobs and set up shop at Shannon's house, storing inventory and shipping product. Fast forward several months later and the women of GOVERRE found themselves in a completely different setting – in the tank of ABC's hit series, Shark Tank. Once again surpassing their goals, Shannon and Regan secured investments with sharks Mark Cuban, Lori Greiner and Robert Herjavec. GOVERRE has continued to rapidly expand since with this powerful pair leading every step of the way.

Here at GOVERRE, we believe that Me matters

It's okay to have self-care.
It's okay to take a second.
If that means having a glass after a killer day of work,

Then pour.

Or you just need a reason to celebrate,

Then sip.

Because the last time you celebrated anything was making a dentist appointment.

You're always on. A go-getter and non-stop moving machine.
We see you.
We believe you should check out everywhere else and check in with yourself.
Even for just a moment.
You have permission to stop and take a sip
in the day, night, or whenever you damn well please.

If you're at the end of your rope,
We're here to give you an extra line – or glass.
We're ditching perfection for the real stuff.
In the midst of the mundane and monumental,
we're in your corner.
Whether you're a red, white, bubbly, or smooth,
pour on sister,

Pour on.
