Binchotan Charcoal

- Makes tap water taste great
- Binchotan active charcoal has been used in Japan as a water purifier since the 17th century. It reduces chlorine, mineralises the water and balances the pH. The Binchotan charcoal can be used for up to 6 months and amazingly recycles for many different uses afterwards.
- Individually packaged in recyclable vacuum foil
- Point of sale stand available
- D2.5 x L11.8 cm (approx.) / D1 x L5 in (approx.)
