Welcome to Mastrad Baby

With a rich history of innovation, we have been bringing exciting new products to aspiring home chefs for more than twenty years.

Being a French company, we understand food, and what the best tools and appliances are to deliver the healthiest, safest and tastiest foods to young and old alike. Our silicone food preparation and storage products offer the ultimate in versatility, safety and ease of use.

They are all BPA free and Phthalate free. Our factories have been producing for the European and U.S. markets for many years, and adhere to the most stringent manufacturing standards.

Over the past two years, we have applied our design expertise, and our understanding of everyday consumer challenges, towards developing a simple line of baby and toddler products, focused on feeding and storage, aimed at making life in the kitchen for the busy on-the-go mom a little easier.

We hope you will enjoy and appreciate the thoughtfulness embodied in these products, and share your experiences with your friends and loved ones. For us at Mastrad, we are inspired by the happiness experienced by moms as they raise healthy and happy children all around the world.
