SOL.

The first automatic handbag light in the world.

Stop searching. Find what you're looking for. According to research, women spend 76 days of their life, searching in their handbags. SOL is the ideal aid to find lip gloss, keys or the mobile phone. An automatic handbag light. Clever, since it is time saving and automatic. It illuminates once one approaches with the hand and turns on automatically as well. No switches. Stylish, as it is a visual highlight in its feminine and timeless design. Sustainable, because batteries can be replaced and it comes in a box of recycled paper. SOL. For her and those who love her.
